

Thursday, August 25, 2016

Fruition Farms

Larkspur, Colorado
A busy, artisanal sheep dairy and creamery which includes crops, cheeses, beehives and pigs.

Lunch at a local restaurant

Thursday, September 22, 2016

The Butte Theater

Melodrama in Cripple Creek

“The Foreigner”
A contemporary farce

Lunch at a local restaurant

Thursday, October 20, 2016

Pauline Memorial Chapel

A place of prayer and meditation and home to Spencer Penrose’s collection of religious artwork.

Lunch at the Golden Bee

Thursday, November 17, 2016

Tom Tudor

Former Guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier
“Who’s buried at Arlington Cemetery?”

Potluck Lunch

Tuesday, December 13, 2016

Simpich Showcase

“Puppet Maker”

Museum, gallery and elaborate marionette theater.

Lunch at a local restaurant

Thursday, January 12, 2017

Organist Eric Wicks

Everything you ever wanted to know about our church organ and a short recital.

Potluck Lunch

Thursday, February 16, 2017

Linda Navarro

Linda Navarro shares her experiences of 50 years at the Gazette newspaper.

Potluck Lunch

Thursday, March 16, 2017

Laura Libbe, Lutheran Family Services

Laura Libbe will give a presentation about the refugee program at LFS.

Potluck Lunch

Thursday, April 13, 2017

Comparative Religions

Professor Michael LeMay compares the doctrines and practices of different religions.

Potluck Lunch

Thursday, May 18, 2017

Chico Basin Ranch

A refuge for hundreds of species of birds, the ranch maintains a bird banding station each spring.

Sack Lunch

Thursday, June 15, 2017

Florissant Fossil Beds

A new geological tour lead by Sally Maertens

Lunch at a local restaurant

Thursday, July 13, 2017

Penrose Heritage Museum

The guided tour will include 31 horse-drawn carriages, 13 motorized vehicles and Pikes Peak Hill Climb cars.

Lunch at a local restaurant